

TOBACCO USE AND YOUR BOTTOM LINE

Employees who smoke cost businesses, on average, more than $6,000 per year when compared to non-smoking employees. This cost to Florida businesses comes primarily in the form of increased health care costs and productivity losses.

